The Terms of Use govern your use of and access to the Website. Your use of this Website will be considered evidence of your agreement to the terms contained in these Terms of Use.

Privacy

The City of Arcola recognizes the importance of protecting the privacy of the users of the website. The City of Arcola World Wide Web site is a fundamental communication tool for providing critical and informative City information and interactive services to its citizens. The goal of the City of Arcola Website is to encourage user participation in City government, to enable electronic service delivery to the public, and to help create a better Arcola.

The City of Arcola does not use its Website to collect personal information for any purpose other than to respond to a user's request or input, or to complete an online transaction.

The City of Arcola does not create individual profiles with the information provided by users of this site, nor does it give such personal information to third parties or private organizations. The City does not track information about individuals and their visits. The information does not identify you personally.

If a user chooses to provide the City of Arcola with personal information, such as sending an e-mail to a City of Arcola employee or by filling out and submitting an online form located on the City of Arcola's Website, the City of Arcola may use that information to respond to the user's message and to assist in obtaining information the user may have requested.

To that end, all records entered on the Website and submitted to the City are subject to the State of Illinois and Federal Open Records laws.

General
